INDIAN AID PROGRAM IS LAUNCHED IN THIS AREA

In the belief that Americans should be taken care of first, residents of Torrance, Lomita, San Pedro and surrounding areas have been asked to donate for the relief of more than 61,000 starving and ill-clad Navajo Indians in New Mexico and Arizona.

SCHEDULE ACTIVITIES

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal church will have holy communion preceding a luncheon and business meeting today from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the church.

St. Cecilia's Guild held a Christmas party followed by another Christmas party yesterday in the parish hall.

Mrs. Eldon Rathbone, 2026 237th st., So. Torrance, has offered her property as a collection point for contributions.

At one time a resident near a Navajo reservation, Mrs. Rathbone says, "They need anything we can give them—clothing, shoes, canned or non-perishable food, simple medical supplies, anything that's still usable, even if it's not in the best of condition."
